

EurEau Congress 2026: Practical Information & FAQs

20-22 October 2026

Renaissance Hotel Turbinenstrasse 20, 8005 Zurich and the Technopark, Technoparkstrasse 1, 8005 Zürich

1. What is the Congress?

The EurEau Congress brings together our members from across Europe for three days of meetings, discussion and networking.

The programme combines committee and communications meetings where members work on EurEau's policy priorities, with a plenary conference open to all participants plus external experts from outside EurEau. On the final day, there are the General Assembly, Joint Working Group (JWG) and site visits.

The three days offer opportunities to exchange with colleagues from across the European water sector.

The programme combines committee, Communications Managers Network and Joint Working Group meetings, where members work on EurEau's policy and technical priorities, with a plenary conference open to all participants and external experts from outside EurEau.

2. Registration

Can I still register? When is the deadline?

We temporarily closed registration on 16.09.26. It reopens on 17.09.26.

The Tuesday dinner, the Wednesday plenary and the Wednesday dinner are closed for registration, but we are opening a waiting list for these.

The Tuesday committee meetings and the communications meetings are still open for registration.

The Thursday GA/JWG/unconference and site visits are all open for registration.

Do I need to register for the Congress?

Yes. You can register here:

<https://www.eureaucongress2026.org/en/registration/registration-for-eureau-members/>

What does my registration include?

- Committee/Communications/JWG meetings
- Welcome dinner
- Plenary conference (if there is room)
- Gala dinner
- Coffee breaks/lunches
- General Assembly (for GA members only)
- Site visit.

Can I change or cancel my registration?

Yes. Contact Caroline and Raffaele.

Can I register for only part of the Congress?

Yes. You can register for the parts of the Congress you plan to attend. Please make sure you select the relevant meetings, plenary sessions and social events when registering.

2. The programme

Exact times to be confirmed. We will also provide more meeting room details closer to the time.

Which sessions should I attend?

When registering, please select the committee, Communications Managers Network and/or JWG meetings you are planning to attend, as well as the plenary conference and evening events. You can also register for the unconference and one of the two site visits.

If you would like to attend a committee or JWG meeting that you are not a member of, please contact the relevant Chair in advance.

The General Assembly is restricted to EurEau General Assembly members and their authorised delegates.

Some meetings take place at the same time, so it is not possible to attend everything. The two Thursday site visits also take place simultaneously, so you must choose one.

Can my non-EurEau colleague attend?

EurEau meetings (committee/communications/GA/JWG) are only for EurEau members. Non-EurEau members can attend the plenary conference on Wednesday 21, but they need to register and pay for this.

Do I have to attend the whole Congress?

No. You can attend the parts that are only of relevance for you, if you like.

Where can I find the detailed programme? Is it likely to change?

The programme is here.

The general structure will remain the same, but details will firm up and adapt closer to the time.

About the site visits

Both site visits are taking place on Thursday afternoon and will finish by 16:00. They are in different locations, so you can only attend one. Both are accessible by public transport and are conveniently located for onward travel to Zurich Airport.

You can bring your luggage with you and leave it securely at the site during the visit.

We will provide attendees with information on how to get to the airport or train station after the visit, closer to the visit date.

3. Getting to Zurich

How do I get to Zurich?

- Zurich Airport. From the airport, a direct train from the airport to Zurich main station (Zurich HB) takes 10-13 minutes and costs CHF 6.80 (covered by Swiss Travel Pass). Trains run every few minutes.
- Train.
- Public transport in the city: <https://www.zvv.ch/en/home.html>.
- Taxi: <https://zurichtaxi.com/en/>.

How do I get from Zurich Hauptbahnhof to Technopark?

The Technopark is served by tram 51. Check your map or transport app for the best options on the day and time you arrive. It's about 12 minutes by tram from the main train station and about 20 minutes from the city centre to the Technopark.

What should I know about travelling in Switzerland?

- It's not in the EU but it is in Schengen.
- EU roaming rules don't apply so check your phone package.
- The local currency is the Swiss Franc. Currently, this is €1 is CHF0.94. Cards are welcome but have a bit of cash for tips.
- Switzerland uses Type J plugs (3-pin, similar to Type C but with a grounding pin). Voltage is 230V, 50Hz — compatible with most European and international devices. Bring an adapter.
- Emergency number: 112 (EU-standard emergency number works here). Also: Police 117, Fire 118, Ambulance 144.

4. Accommodation

Where should I stay?

Our Swiss hosts have shortlisted these hotels and have negotiated preferential rates with some of them (see the details on the website). All of them are close to the congress venue. You're welcome to stay elsewhere too.

5. Evening events

What are the evening events?

Monday 19 October – Informal catch up

As always, there is a pre-conference catch-up drink on Monday evening, hosted by EurEau.

We will meet from 17h until 19h at the Cabaret Voltaire, Spiegelgasse 1, 8001 Zürich, Switzerland.

From there, you are welcome to go for dinner at your own expense in a local restaurant. We have not booked any restaurants, but we recommend:

- Zeughauskeller restaurant: <https://www.zeughauskeller.ch/en/home>
- Mère Catherine: <https://www.mere-catherine.ch/la-cuisine>
- Bauernschänke: <https://bauernschaenke.ch/en/>
- Trattoria Neumarkt: https://www.neumarkt-zuerich.ch/media/neu_menu_la_carte_en.pdf
- Zum Königstuhl: <https://koenigstuhl.ch/menu/Speisekarte%20Koenigstuhl.pdf>.

The Monday evening welcome drinks are deliberately informal: come if you can, when you can. There is no need to register and no need to let us know if you cannot make it.

If you are unable to attend the welcome drinks but are coming for the informal dinner, please arrange to meet up with colleagues from your country or EurEau committee or the Secretariat so that you know where and when to meet.

Tuesday 20 October - Welcome Dinner

On Tuesday 20 October, you are invited to a Welcome Dinner at Restaurant Commihalle, Stampfenbachstrasse 8, 8001 Zürich, www.commihalle.ch

It is in the city centre, a short walk from the main train station. You should take the 51 tram there.

The evening starts at 18:30 and ends at 22:30.

Wednesday 21 October - Gala Dinner

On Wednesday 21 October, you are invited to the SOHO Zurich, Hardstrasse 260, 8005 Zürich www.soho-zurich.ch. It is a 6 minute walk from the Technopark, or one tram stop («Schiffbau») if you choose to take the 51 tram there.

The evening starts at 18:30 and ends at 23:30 (if you like dancing).

6. Other useful information

What meals are included in my registration?

Included: Monday welcome drinks; Tuesday breakfast/coffee breaks/lunch/dinner;

Wednesday coffee breaks/lunch/dinner; Thursday lunch and site visit refreshments.

Not included: Monday dinner and anything after the Thursday site visit.

What is the dress code?

The whole congress is quite relaxed, so business casual or smart attire is perfectly fine for all the meetings and dinners.

As usual, dancing shoes are useful if you are so inclined.

For the site visits, please dress appropriately.

How do I find the Congress registration desk?

Registration will be clearly signposted inside the Technopark.

What time does registration open?

It will open at 8am on Tuesday, until 9.30 and again on Thursday for GA members.

Will there be Wi-Fi?

Yes.

Will there be charging facilities?

We will have plugs and cables but bring a Swiss Type J plug adaptor.

Are there cloakrooms? Can I leave my suitcase?

On Thursday, for the site visits, you will have to take your case with you, but you can leave this in the treatment plant before the tour.

Is the Congress venue accessible?

Yes.

Language and interpretation, etc

All EurEau committee, communications, GA and JWG meetings will be in English. There is no interpretation.

The conference of 21.10 will be in English with interpretation to German.

All of the meetings are in-person only, no hybrid, and they are not recorded.

Who can I contact for urgencies during the Congress?

During the Congress, Caroline and Raffaele are available for genuine urgent queries relating to the Congress. Please use these contacts only if the issue is urgent and cannot reasonably be resolved using the information provided on this website or your preferred search engine.

For travel delays, getting lost, transport information, finding local amenities or other general practical questions, please use the information and links provided on this website, your preferred search engine or contact the relevant service directly.

We have provided the information you need to get around Zurich and attend the Congress, including addresses, transport information and venue details. Please make your own arrangements for getting to meetings, dinners and other activities. You do not need to contact Caroline or Raffaele if you are running late.

You are free to arrive at and leave meetings and dinners according to your own schedule. If you are running late, there is no need to let us know.
